

Graduate Seminar Series 2008

VICSERV in collaboration with The University of Melbourne Mental Health Practice Research Unit is pleased to announce a new professional development initiative for 2008.

For graduates in social work, mental health, psychology, community services, occupational therapy, social sciences or community development

Aims of the program:

- To hear from current researchers
- To enable practicing graduates to discuss and debate current research and how it applies to practice in PDRS services
- To offer the program in different locations around Melbourne

Expectation of attendance

- To read relevant recommended article(s) before the seminar in order to fully participate in the discussion. These will be available either on the VICSERV website or will be produced in a recent copy of New Paradigm.
